

Elephant hawk-moth colouring sheet

You can find these moths during the summer time, from May to August.

This vibrant green and pink moth gets its name, because as a caterpillar, it looks like an elephant's trunk.

Elephant hawk-moths can often be seen feeding on the nectar of flowering plants like honeysuckle.

Museum of Natural History

HOPE
FOR THE FUTURE

HERITAGE
FUND